Andrew & Renata Kaldor Centre
for International Refugee Law

Emerging Scholars Network
Africa Research Group

Application Form

The Andrew & Renata Kaldor Centre for International Refugee Law at UNSW Sydney is establishing an Africa Research Group within its Emerging Scholars Network (ESN). This will be the first interdisciplinary community of early-career scholars researching African refugee law, policy and practice. The Africa Research Group is open to scholars based within Africa and elsewhere. The Africa Research Group is led by Dr Tamara Wood, a Centre Affiliate at the Kaldor Centre. To apply to join, please complete this form and return it by email to: kaldor-africagroup-owner@lists.unsw.edu.au.

Please note: the information provided below may be published on the Kaldor Centre website and circulated to other members of the Africa Research Group.*

1. Personal Details

Title
Given name(s)
Surname
Email
Academic Institution/Affiliation (include Faculty, Centre etc)
Current Position (please note that the Africa Research Group is open to individuals conducting honours level research or above)
Professional Networks and Profiles (Twitter, Linkedin etc)

2. Research

Brief Bio (max 300 words, including summary of current research projects relevant to refugee law, policy and practice in Africa)
Relevant Publications (include a link to google scholar, academia.edu, university profile if relevant)
Relevant Teaching Experience

2. Other

How do you hope to benefit from membership of the Africa Research Group?
What do you hope to contribute as a member of the Africa Research Group?	